Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Journal of the Society for Psychical Research, Vol. 3: 1887-88; For Private Circulation Among Members and Associates Only After a time the lesson was to a great extent learnt. Repeated discussion had led all of us to concur as to the points demanding special attention, just as lawyers would concur on the critical points in an abstract of title. After this agreement was attained, the formal meetings were discontinued. We were all now in accord as to the method of inquiry. Henceforth the cases which reached one or another member of the Committee were dealt with by that member, who worked up the evidence to the best of his power; and such consultation as took place was of an informal kind. The Committee met again, when it was necessary to make a preliminary selection of the cases to be published in Phantasms of the Living; but as to a very large number of cases, received since that time, the decision has been made by two or three members - the evidential requirements having been by that time so completely agreed on that, within certain limits, there was no possibility of an important difference of view. Meanwhile a plan had been introduced by which other members of the Society might, if they desired, take part in the criticism of the evidence. From a very early stage the cases received which seemed to have a prima facie claim to consideration, in all branches of the research, had been printed in slips, and were open to inspection at the Society's rooms. But the study of them in this form was inconvenient; and the establishment of the monthly...
