The French Revolution, in San Domingo (Classic Reprint)

By Theodore Lothrop Stoddard

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The French Revolution, in San Domingo The world-wide struggle between the primary races of mankind - the conflict of color, as it has been happily termed - bids fair to be the fundamental problem of the twentieth century, and great communities like the United States of America, the South African Confederation, and Australasia regard the color question as perhaps the gravest problem of the future. To our age, therefore, the French Revolution in San Domingo - the first great shock between the ideals of white supremacy and race equality, which erased the finest of European colonies from the map of the white world and initiated that most noted attempt at negro self-government, the black republic of Haiti - cannot but be of peculiar interest. Strangely enough, the real story of this tremendous racial and social cataclysm has never been told, and it is to fill this gap in the history of modern times that this book has been written. For, be it noted, in this field, the race question, important though it be, is not...
