Excerpt: . . . 11 If you want to have low taxes, then you have to be willing to ac-cept and find program cuts that will match the two. So, the main thing is that people will understand that they need to be consistent between their preferences on revenues and spending. Senator Brownback. Too big to fail, has been challenged by some Fed Chairmen, one in Kansas City and other places. Do you think we need to amend that, or allow some of the big financial institutions to go through an orderly restructuring process Chairman Bernanke. Well, Senator, too big to fail, has been sometimes called a policy or a doctrine. It is not a policy; it is a problem. It is a huge problem. It has arisen because we do not have adequate legal powers to safely wind down a large financial holding company or a bank holding company with many divisions, many companies, subsidiaries, many complex...
