Excerpt: . . . 11 and there were certainly difficulties, but I think it is a much better payment system. I think, in the long run, this is a better payment system. There will be people that will not be happy with it, but I think it is very equitable and it makes much more sense as a much more rational payment system. AYTON Senator D. My time for my first round of questions is up. Senator Carnahan. Senator C. Ambulance and emergency medical service ARNAHAN providers in Missouri have raised some concerns about the use of 1998 data to calculate the reimbursement levels. The concern is that these numbers are outdated and do not adequately reflect the current costs. How would you address this concern Mr. S. I think we already have addressed it. Again, I do CULLY not want to get punched by one of my attorneys here, but the issue for the NPRM was the best data we had at the time was 1998 data, and that was updated and inflated...
