Thircuir Limited, Hong Kong, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 164 x 110 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Featuring the most prominent names in contemporary Chinese photography, these pocket-sized monographs explore the extraordinary diversity of the genre and showcase a creative, liberated, and unique artistic perspective. The collections present an obscure tableau of modern Chinese society, from magnificent landscapes and never-before-seen industrial compounds to the desires of China's new youth and its growing sociopolitical challenges. The imagery from some of the most exciting artists working today--including the invisible man photos of Liu Bolin and the world-famous coal miner portraits of Song Chao--is prefaced with a concise essay that explains the background and inspiration of each featured photographer. Halfway between Nan Goldin and Wong Kar Wai, Yang Yong is composing the diary of the new Chinese youth. Shenzhen, the iconic new city without a past is the theatre of his works: a city of artifice, a symbol of China's rebirth, attracting the hopes and dreams of this generation. Through his cinematic images, Yang Yong seizes the voids and the superficiality of the new desires of this burgeoning consumer society. His poetic and colourful works reflect with grace the wanderings of a generation adrift in a society that escapes them.
